

Sturgis places fourth in Class B state final

Centreville placed second in the Class D boys meet and Sturgis placed fourth in the Class B team standings in state high school cross country action Saturday.

Sturgis received fine efforts from Keith Keyser and Jeff Ash, both juniors. St. Joseph's girls team placed sixth in B, led by Sue Drago with 30 points.

Niles star Brad Quick earned a seventh among Michigan's Class A boys. According to Michigan rules, the top seven runners receive all-state distinction.

Brandywine placed 17th in the boys state final at Watervliet and Edwardsburg placed 18th. Jon Johnson of Berrien Springs placed fifth as an individual. Watervliet sophomore Linda Hagenbarth, defending state champ, placed seventh in the girls race.
