Northern runners travel different roads to victory

By LEN HOYES Journal sports writer

Routes were different but results were the same Friday night as Northern swept both sections of the 14th C. S. Mott Relays at Houston Stadium.

The Viking girls won eight of 11 events and scored 98 points to capture their fifth straight Mott title in a breeze but the Viking boys used seconds and thirds to support one victory while piling up 64 points for their fourth Mott crown in the last seven years.

Both victories could be considered routine. Coach George Dedrick's girls were conceded the title going George Dedrick's girls were conceded the title going into the meet and Coach Norbert Badar's boys have their best team balance in a long time.

THE GIRLS won by 43 points over runner-up Benton Harbor in a 16-team field and the boys by 20 points over Kearsley in a 21-team field.

Neither Dedrick nor Badar were surprised by the Neither Dedrick nor Badar were surplised by the triumphs but nevertheless were pleased.

Dedrick, who has Northern pointed toward its fourth straight Class A state championship, said, "I was nervous going into the 400 relay but these kids are hard workers.

He preferred to talk about Assistant Coach Don Durrett whom he credited for a blossoming crew of hurdlers. "We're doing so well because he's brought along his group of girls," Dedrick said.

BADAR'S TEAM won despite a disqualification in the 400 relay which he expected to win. He said, "Several of our guys had personal best times to show we're coming right along. We've had some injuries but we're bouncing back.

The boys' only victory came in the 3,200-meter re-lay with Joe Sparrow, Stan Ruth, Nigel Banister and Mike Caldwell clocking 7:57.1.

Otherwise there were six seconds, one third and two fourths in the 13 events. An injury to Ed Willingham, Northern's best discus tosser, may have prevented another victory.

KEARSLEY AND third-place Southwestern won three events and Ainsworth two.

Tim Helms, Doug Wheeler and Craig Adas ran on Kearsley's winning 6,400 and distance medley teams. Tim Kindell and Darryl Taylor were part of Southwestern victories in the Mott 800, sprint medley and 1,600meter relays.

Tom Kassion and Tim Fellows combined to win the discus and shot put for Ainsworth.

Central won the shuttle hurdles and Northwestern the long jump with 1981 state champion Clayton Alexander aiding the latter victory.

NORTHERN'S GIRLS won everything except the high jump, individual 1,600 and the discus.

Pam Brown and Marlene Isabelle figured in four victories and Monica Taylor and Terri Barber in three. Brown won the indidivual 100 meters in 12.6 seconds and helped win the long jump, 800 and 1,600. Isabelle helped win the Mott 2,400, 800, 400 and 1,600.

Taylor was with the winners in the long jump, 1,600 hurdles, 800 and 400.

Beecher's Sharron Granberry and Relesia Hicks combined for 228-1 in the discus to win one of the three events which escaped Northern.

Northern also swept both divisions in 1979, the last time Badar's team won.

"You never get tired of winning," Badar said.

Dedrick just smiled. He's had four years of winning.

New, old looks spice Classic

A new-look Universal Collision team and old-look, still-good Detroit S&C Glass took opening strides to-ward a Sunday showdown in the first annual Roundball Classic at Beecher High.

Led by talented Big Ten Conference guards Craig Tucker (Flint Northern) and Kevin Smith (Birmingham Brother Rice), UC's stamina and youth paid off with an 81-77 victory over Harden's Grocery after the late-arriving Glassmen came on strong to defeat Flint Sixers 78-62 Friday night at Bee-

Sixers 78-62 Friday night at Beecher.

Today's play — the tournament will be held at Beecher — started at 10 a.m. with key games at 4 — S&C against the Detroit Burger King-Dotson Collision winner — and at 5:30 when Universal faces the Detroit Magisters 4:41 mages the Detroit Nacirema-Kalamazoo Greco victor. Winners of those games will advance to a 10:30 Sunday morning clash, the last meeting of unbeatens.

Sunday's title game, if there is an unbeaten champion, is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Other games today, all in the losers' bracket, are at 1, 2:30, 7 and 8:30 p.m. with a 9 a.m. losers' game opening Sunday's play.

Tucker, who starred at Illinois, got 14 of his game-high 25 points and Smith, Michigan State's britliant guard, sank 12 of his 14 in the second half to turn back spirited Harden's which wasn't out of the hunt until Gary Pool hit two free throws, Smith another and Central's Marty Embry got his lone

Pat Bock and Hank Caldwell added 8 points for UC. Leonard Allen hooped 20, Willard DeShazor 14, James Person 12 and Tony Flanory 10 for Harden's.

Teddy Jackson hit 6 straight shots and 12 of Sixers' first 16 points as the Flint crew surprised title favorite S&C Glass by springing to an 8-2 lead and settling for a 38-38 halftime tie.

It was S&C 40, Sixers 24 in the final 20 minutes as Wilbur McCor-mick and Johnny Goston started hitting regularly. The Glassmen made it decisive by scoring 13 of the last 17 points.

Goston got 12 of his game-high
20 points and McCormick 13 of his 17 in the second half after Earl Dixon led the early assault with 9 of his 13 markers.

The Glassmen, who didn't lead in the first half, went ahead for keeps at 42-41 on two McCormick free throws and the margin gradually widened.

Jackson had 16 points, Robert Rison and Dan Hobson 10 for

Stormy McEnroe in semis

NEW YORK (UPI) - John NEW YORK (UPI) — John McEnroe, brewing up a new storm of controversy, and Ivan Lendl continued along the path toward another showdown with straight-set victories Friday to reach the semi-finals of the Tournament of Champions

After engaging in a shouting match with John Sadri, the topseeded McEnroe went on for a me-thodical 6-3, 6-3 victory, following which Lendl, the second seed, disposed of Mel Purcell 6-2, 6-2.

It was the 87th victory for Lendl in his last 90 matches, and in four contests at Forest Hills he has dropped only 12 games.

Third seed Jose-Luis Clerc of Argentina swept through the final nine games to win his quarterfinal match from Pablo Arraya of Peru 6-2, 6-0. Arraya won his only games by holding serve in the third and McEnroe and Sadri exchanged words in the eight game of the opening set after the feisty New Yorker had appealed several times for the umpire to control crowd movement and on another occasion slammed a ball into the backdrop.

Sadri yelled out for McEnroe to Sadri yelled out for McEntoe to stop "carrying on around the court," which brought a reaction from the crowd. McEntoe called back, "real good PR (public relations) move." Later in the game, after McEntoe won a point, Sadri said to him "Way to go crybaby."

to him, "Way to go, crybaby."
"I thought he did it to get a reaction," McEnroe said following his fifth victory over Sadri in as many pro meetings. "He could have just said it to me."

Sadri refused to comment on the the matter, saying, "I lost the match. There is no way I can win by saying anything."
