

Seton Bovee Area H

Outstanding track and field performers from around the county will have the opportunity to test their skills against each other tomorrow in Quincy as the Coldwater Daily Reporter sponsor's its second annual Seton C. Bovee Area Best track meet.

Records of area performances have been kept for both boys and girls throughout the season with the top six performers in each class gaining the nod to run in tomorrow's meet. Athletes from Coldwater, Bronson, Union City, Quincy, and Tekonsha will participate.

The meet is named in honor of longtime Reporter Editor Seton C. Bovee, dean of Michigan sportswriters at the time of his death.

Field competition will begin at 6 p.m. at the OriAle track with running events following beginning at 7 p.m. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Coldwater Daily Reporter Track Honor Roll
