Titans Too Much For Harriers

JACKSON — Coldwater High School's cross country team made the long trek to Jackson yesterday afternoon to face state power Jackson Lumen Christi, but the results, if not the Cardinal performance, were nearly as dismal as the cold, rainy weather which greeted coach Jim Bilsborrow's harriers.

Jackson's Tim Underwood and Chris Kelly ran in unison for nearly the full 5000 meters over the Cascade Park course, crossed the finish line together in 17:31, and led a Titan 1-2-3 sweep that culminated in an 18-43 romp over the Cards. Christi's Mike Sauter squeaked in ahead of Coldwater's Scott Summitt to ensure the Titan sweep. Summitt's time was 17:54, 23 seconds behind the lead runners.

Lumen Christi's Kevin Miller took fifth, ahead of Coldwater's Scott Licht, who ran another strong race in his first year of competition. Jackson then copped the next three places to make the final score a lopsided 18-43.

The one bright spot in the day, according to Bilsborrow, was the performance of freshman Scott Gleason. Running in his first varsity race, Gleason was the third Cardinal to cross the finish line, taking tenth overall. "He's been getting himself in shape, and the results showed today," said Bilsborrow. For his performance Gleason gained the nod for the Cards' Hungry Dog Award.

The Cardinals are now 3-2 for the season and will begin Twin Valley competition next Wednesday at Hillsdale when they face the host Hornets and defending state champion Marshall for a 5 p.m. race at Lewis Emery Park.
