

Eisenhower shades 1

Add track to the list of sports that can be described as "A game of inches."

Thursday's boys prep meet between Eisenhower and Fraser fits that description.

The Eagles nipped Fraser 67-65 in a Macomb Athletic Conference meet when Eisenhower's anchorman, Pat DeView, nosed out his opponent by a few inches in the 1600-meter relay.

DeView, who ran a 51.3-second split, made up a 40-yard deficit in the final leg.

Another key to the Eisenhower victory was a 1-3 finish in the 3200 run. Brian Genslak was first and sophomore Mark Golda took third.

Eisenhower also took the first two places in both hurdles behind Chris Pesta and Paul Sokol.

Paul Holloway won the discus, 100 and 200 for Fraser while teammate Marty Crew was first in the high jump and 800.
