1-2-3 Places Spark Coldwater Harriers

BATTLE CREEK — Scott Gleason, Nick Loomis and Brian Licht finished 1-2-3 to carry Coldwater High to a 24-31 Twin Valley win over Harper Creek Wednesday in cross country action.

Gleason covered the tough Binder Park course in 17 minutes, seven seconds. Loomis was clocked at 18:27 and Licht followed closely at 18:39.

“Brian really came through for us today,” Coach Jim Bilsborrow remarked. “We needed three runners ahead of their pack in order to win.”

The Beavers took the next three places, led by Brian Schneider's 18:55. The Cards' Matt Morgan was eighth, then teammate Paul Fox ran 10th.

The Coldwater girl's team had an easy time of it, as Harper Creek could not field a full team. Marianne Exelby led the way for the Cardinals with a first-place time of 21:46. Teammate Dawn Valle was second at 22:33, then after Harper Creek placed third, Coldwater's Shelly Thompson, Shelly Angle and Cynthia Grupp all placed.

Coldwater will run in the prestigious Sturgis Kiwanis Invitational on Saturday, with some of the state's best competition taking part.
