Exelby, Valle Pace Coldwater Harriers

STURGIS — Marianne Exelby and Dawn Valle led the Coldwater High girl's cross country team to convincing wins over Sturgis and Lakeview here Wednesday while the boy's team split with the two schools.

The girls beat Lakeview 18-39 and Sturgis 18-37 in Twin Valley action. Exelby led the race from start to finish, posting a winning time of 20 minutes, 11 seconds. Valle was second at 20:37. Teammates Shelly Thompson was fifth, Michelle Laughry sixth and Mary Nowak placed seventh. The girls upped their record to 5-3 in dual meets.

The boys beat the Spartans 27-28 but fell to the host Trojans 25-30.

Scott Gleason continued his string of dual meet victories by winning the race in 16:12. Sturgis took the next two spots and Lakeview placed fourth, leaving fifth place to Coldwater's Nick Loomis. Brian Licht was seventh, but the Cardinals' next two runners finished behind Sturgis's fifth man and the Trojans were able to win.

Coldwater will return to the course on Friday when it, along with Bronson and Union City, takes part in the annual Optimist Branch County Meet at Messenger Lake Park. Boy's action will begin at 4:30 p.m. and the girl's race starts at 5 o'clock.
