Highlights For 1984

- 1) Although we had to forfeit the trophy, our Cardinals were the Runner-up Team at the Centreville Invitational
- 2) Although we later had to forfeit the win, our Cardinals ran up a perfect score of 15-50 against Albion on Albion's home course. (Our top 7 men all beat Albion's lead runner.)
- 3) We finished 1-2-3 against Harper Creek on their home course.
- 4) We won our fifth straight County Championship with Scott Gleason, Nick Loomis, and Brian Licht making the All-County Team.
- 5) We finished in second place in the Twin-Valley Meet, with Scott Gleason, Runner-up in the race, making First Team All-Conference and Nick Loomis making Second Team All-Conference.
- 6) Scott Gleason placed fourth in the Regional Meet.
- 7) Scott Gleason was Runner-up in the Individual Race at the State Meet, becoming the first All-State cross-country runner in CHS history.
