Delton reigns as KVA boys' champ

DELTON — Remmon Baker and Steve Tain won two events each Wednesday to lead Delton High's boys' track team to a rousing victory in the KVA Meet.

lock in the long jump, Mark Hammond in the pole vault, Jeff Jensen in the 1000 and Dave Vickery in the 800. The Panthers also had seconds in all four varsity relays.

Bellevue's Lisa Southern, left, sprints to victory in the 100-meter dash as Bronson's Buffy Wilber, center, and Bellevue's Brenda Southern place second and third, respectively.

remaining, when Bellevue's Lisa Southern came out of nowhere. Actually, she had come from fourth, and was zooming past opponents at a rapid pace.

But by the time Southern, who won had swept the 100- and 200-meter dashes earlier, caught up, Schottenlober was leaning across the tape.

She didn't have that problem in romping to victories in the 1,000 and 2000 runs. Nor did Jenny Campbell of St. Philip, also a double winner, capturing the long jump and 500 hurdles.

Hubbard and St. Philip's Paul Hurst were both clocked at 15.9 going into the final.

Hubbard captured the long jump in 25.9.

COMSTOCK — Kay Gemrich won both the 1000- and 2000-meter runs and led off the winning 3200 relay team Wednesday night to spark Gull Lake girls' track team to a second-place finish in the Wolverine Conference meet.

The Blue Devils' 99 points was a distant second to champion Three Rivers, which had 140.

Gull Lake's boys' team finished fifth with 63 points.

Gemrich set a meet record in the 2000 with an 11:25.3 and won the 1000 in 2:22.46. She teamed with Cheryl Tomlin, Roberta McKean and Chris Cooper in the 3200 relay.

Shelie Hovever won the high jump for the Blue Devils. Cooper took first in the 800, in which Gemrich was runnerup. McKean was second in the 300 and third in the 1000.

John Sharrock grabbed first in the high hurdles and took second in the lows in the boy's meet. Steve Powell won the 800 and anchored the victorious 3200 relay team with Marc Tourangeau, Todd Helton and Steve Mays.
