SCOTT GLEASON

DAWN VALLE

Card Harriers Ease By Albion, Hastings

ALBION — Scott Gleason and Kevin Sussex came in 1-2 as did Dawn Valle and Marianne Exelby to pace Coldwater High's boys' and girls' cross country teams to wins Wednesday in Twin Valley action.

Gleason and Sussex led the Cardinals to a perfect 15-50 win over Albion and a 21-38 romp past Hastings in the double-dual meet. The girls outdistanced the Saxons 16-43, while Albion could not field a girl's team.

Gleason came across the finish line at 16 minutes, 46 seconds and Sussex ran the course in 17:16. Taking third against the Wildcats was Nick Loomis, fourth was Mike Fadden and fifth was Brian Licht. Paul Fox placed sixth and Matt Morgan seventh to round out Coldwater's finishers.

Against Hastings, the Saxons' Mike Shaw placed third and Wayne Oom fourth to break up the Cards' front five.

Valle and Exelby ran stride for stride for most of their race, with Valle coming across the line in 20:20 and Exelby crossing just eight seconds later. Coldwater's Shelly Thompson and Cynthia Grupp moved up in the final mile to take third and fourth places, respectively, from the Saxons.

Lara Scheidler and Mary Nowak finished sixth and seventh for Coldwater, respectively.

"The girls seem to improve a great deal with each race," Coach Jim Bilsborrow said. "I think they are just getting more and more competitive and are determined to do as well as the boys."

The boys, 5-1, and the girls, 4-1, will both face tougher tests next Wednesday when they host Marshall and Hillsdale in Twin Valley competition. Race time at Memorial Park will be 5 p.m. for the boys, with the girl's race immediately following.
