Card Harriers Whip Centreville, 3 Rivers

Coldwater High junior Scott Gleason paced the Cardinal cross country team to a pair of victories Tuesday, 18-43 over Centreville and 27-29 over Three Rivers, in the Red-birds' opening meet of the year at Memorial Park.

All-stater John Haigh of Three Rivers took the early lead, but Gleason caught him at the half-way point. Haigh, who was not in good early season form, faded to seventh while Gleason posted his personal best time of 16 minutes, 37.8 seconds for first.

Seth Brown of Three Rivers took second at 17:28, while Cardinal senior Mike Fadden ran a strong early season race to grab third at 17:39. Kevin Sussex of Coldwater placed fifth and the Cards' Brian Licht came in ninth to clinch Coldwater's two-point win.

The girls had an easier time of it as they downed Three Rivers 17-44 and Centreville 18-45. The wins were the first ever for the new girl's cross country program at Coldwater.

Veteran Marianne Exelby led the Cards with a first-place time of 20:34.3. She was followed by sophomore Dawn Valle in second (21:47), Cynthia Grupp in fourth and Shelly Thompson and Shelly Angle in sixth and seventh, respectively. Freshman Kristin Bell placed ninth, Robin Brodt placed 10th and Kay Nowak came in 12th to round out Coldwater's placers.

The Cards took seven of the first 10 places and all were better than 25 minutes. "The girls showed a great deal of potential today," Coach Jim Bilsborrow remarked.

Both Coldwater teams will be in action again on Saturday when they take part in the Centreville Invitational.
