McGuire, Strawser set pace

STURGIS — Bronson High's Jesse McGuire and Jill Strawser of Coldwater paced their respective schools with fine performances Saturday in the Sturgis Kiwanis Invitational for cross country runners.

McGuire came in first in the boys' Class B-C portion of the meet, as he crossed the finish line in 16 minutes, 11 seconds to best the field of 133 runners. The Viking senior held a comfortable 15-second edge over runner-up Wayne Oom of Hastings.

Scott Gleason led Coldwater to a ninth-place finish with a 16:47, which was good for fifth place individually. The Cardinals finished with 214 points while Bronson was 10th with 255. Jackson Lumen Christi easily won the meet with 83 points. St. Joseph was second with 125.

McGuire received support from teammate Brian Coats, whose 17:13 time was 16th best overall. Other Viking scorers were Greg Anderson (69th at 18:23); T.J. Cline (74th at 18:32); and Darrel Vorce (95th at 19:01). Rich Clifford (19:09) and Doug Anderson (19:23) also competed.

Brian Licht was second for Coldwater and 27th overall with a 17:24 while Shane Finney was 33rd at 17:40. Other Cardinal placers included Tad Thayer (70th at 18:23) and Jason Grupp (79th at 18:37). David Larimer (18:46) and Gary Pierce (18:47) also competed.

Strawser had a fine showing in the girls' Class B-C meet, as she ran her fastest time of the season. The Lady Card was clocked in 20:10 to take sixth place overall and lead Coldwater to a fourth place finish with 121 points.

Hillsdale, which took the top three places, won the meet with 37 points. Lumen Christi was runner-up with 52 while Bronson was 12th with 309 points.

Coldwater's Dawn Valle finished 18th at 20:59 and Joan Monroe was 20th at 21:12 to help the Lady Cards to their strong showing. Michelle Laughry (34th at 21:38), Mary Nowak (43rd at 22:25) and Tammy Huntley (47th at 22:46) rounded out Coldwater's scoring.

Shantel Houck led the Vikings with a time of 21:37, good for 32nd place. Jean Miller was 38th at 21:44. Other Bronson placers included Beth Barrows (62nd at 24:17); Jodi Case (87th at 26:24); and Cheryl Drust (90th at 26:41).

Coldwater will host Albion and Sturgis in a Twin Valley meet Wednesday while Bronson will to St. Philip for a Southern Michigan Athletic Association contest Tue
