Gleason, Strawser shine

Near record-setting performances by Scott Gleason and Jill Strawser highlighted the efforts of Coldwater High's cross country teams yesterday in a home double-dual Twin Valley meet against Sturgis and Albion.

Gleason covered the Memorial Park course in 16 minutes, 16.6 seconds, which was only six seconds off the school and course record. His winning effort led the Cardinals past Albion 20-36, but Sturgis squeezed out a 27-28 victory.

Gleason's victory was never in doubt as he held a huge lead for most of the race. However, the race for second was not decided until the final yards, as the Trojans' David Stage won a nip-and-tuck battle over Coldwater's Brian Licht by three seconds to give Sturgis its one-point win.

Stage was timed in 16:55 while Licht finished at 16:58. Two other Sturgis runners beat the Cards' Shane Finney (17:23) for fourth and fifth places, Tad Thayer (10th) and Gary Pierce (13th) completed Coldwater's scoring.

"It wasn't just Gleason who ran well," remarked Coldwater coach Jim Biltsborrow. "Almost all of our kids had their best times tonight and we almost upset Sturgis."

The Cardinal coach was also pleased with the effort put forth by the girls' team. Not only did they run their best times, but they won both ends of the double-dual meet, overpowering Sturgis 18-42 and Albion 15-48.

Strawser's winning time of 20:08.1 as less than 11 seconds off the school record. She was chased across the finish line by Dawn Valle, whose 20:24 finish equaled her best time ever on the home course.

Lady Card Joan Monroe finished third with her personal best time at home in 20:46. Michelle Laughry placed fifth and Mary Nowak seventh to complete Coldwater's scoring.

The Lady Cards have lost only to Hillsdale in the league and will get their second chance at the Hornets next Tuesday in the Twin Valley Championship Meet at Hastings.
