Tough Hillsdale harriers too much for Coldwater

BATTLE CREEK — Coldwater High's cross country teams met two of the better teams in the state here Wednesday and came away a little worse for wear in a Twin Valley double-dual meet.

Hillsdale's girls' team, ranked No. 3 in Class B, and the boys' team, rated No. 2, easily ran by Coldwater by 18-39 and 21-40 scores, respectively. The Cardinal boys beat Harper Creek 24-33 while the Beavers failed to field a full girls team.

In the girls' race, the Hornets overcame early leader Jill Strawser of Coldwater to take the first three places. Cathy Acus led the way with a time of 20 minutes, 24 seconds. Strawser was clocked in 21:53.

Michelle Laughry was Coldwater's second runner, as she placed sixth at 22:37. Dawn Valle placed eighth, Joan Monroe 10th and Mary Nowak 11th to round the Lady Cards' scoring, who suffered their first Twin Valley loss.

Coldwater's Scott Gleason ran a 17:30 over the Harper Creek course, but it wasn't enough as Hillsdale's Mark Osbourne placed first in 17:07 in the boys' race.

The Cards' Brian Licht placed fifth at 18:11, but Hillsdale took the next seven places to secure the win. The split decision left Coldwater 3-2 in the league and 6-3 overall.

Both Coldwater teams will compete Saturday in the annual Sturgis Invitational.
