Everett

From 1D

"I didn't think we'd have a letdown, but it was one of the things I was worried about," said Barr, who experienced such an instance two years ago when the Vikings (after going unbeaten during the dual-meet season) were overtaken by Sexton and had to share the CAC crown.

"I'm very pleased with the way each of the kids responded tonight," Barr added. "We're getting ready for June 1 (date of the Class A meet in Flint), and their performance tonight is a good sign . . . they were able to come back strong in a little less than a week."

Phillips proved to be the most courageous of the Vikings, overcoming a slight tear of the left hamstring muscle to win the 100 and 200 dashes in 10.52 and 21.54 seconds, respectively. He also ran the third leg of the 400 and 800 relays.

Whittington's firsts came in the long jump, with a distance of 23-foot-2, and 400 dash, with a time of 48.73. Thompson, as he has done nearly all season long, swept the hurdle events with a 13.97 effort in the 110 highs and a 38.00 clocking in the 300 lows.

Udvadia easily outdistanced the field in the 1,600 and 3,200 runs, winning the shorter event by 14 seconds at 5:22.94 and the latter race by 66 seconds with a 11:16.87 clocking.

Washington won the high jump at 5-4, then claimed the 100 intermediate hurdles title with a mark of 15.15. She finished second to Sexton's Diane Chairs, who was clocked in 46.42, in the 300 low hurdles. Greene won the 100 and 200 dashes with times of 12.11 and 25.6, respectively.

Jackie Banks broke a school record en route to another Viking first, flying 17-11¾ in the long jump, which broke the previous school mark, set by Banks, by 1¾ inch. Sherri Tree recorded Everett's other individual first by withstanding a stiff challenge from Eastern's Jamie Bettis in the 400 dash, breaking the tape .31 ahead of Bettis for a 58.55 finish.

Oilers

From 1D

Sutter. "We let them sit in the driver's seat, sat back and watched."

The defending champion Oilers will host the next three games in the best-of-seven series beginning with Game 3 on Saturday night.

Gretzky, hockey's most dominant offensive player, and fellow centers Mark Messier and Kevin McClelland led the stellar defensive performance by the Oilers.

Gretzky got the only goal of the first period at 10:29 when he skated around the Philadelphia net and backhanded his own rebound into an unguarded cage.

Defenseman Paul Coffey had taken the puck around the net and sent a pass out front to Gretzky, whose backhander was blocked by goalie Pelle Lindbergh. But the puck squirted loose and Gretzky pounced on it for his 11th goal of the playoffs.

The Flyers tied it at 10:22 of the second period when Tim Kerr sent a wrist shot through the legs of goalie Grant Fuhr.
