The Lansing Everett High boys' track team, considered one of the premier teams in the state, dominated six opponents Saturday by capturing nine of the 17 events at the 18th annual East Lansing Kiwanis Relays.

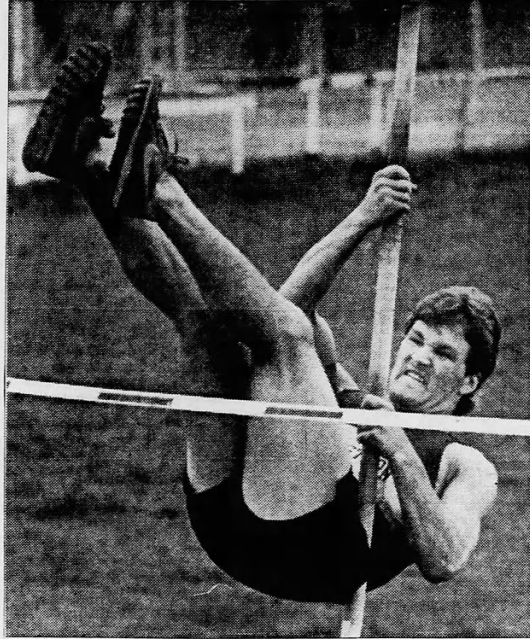

While officials do not declare a winner in the day long competition, the Vikings easily outdistanced Capital Area Conference foes Sexton and East Lansing. The Big Reds won two of the field events en route to four victories, while the host Trojans won three track events.

Midland, winner of the shot putters' relay, was the only other team to win an event. Lansing Eastern, Kalamazoo Loy Norrix and St. Johns also competed while Battle Creek Central was scheduled to compete but failed to show up.

"Our team does a good job all the time," said an enthused Everett Coach Ron Barr after observing a fine all-around performance from his team. "They run basically to the competition."

The Vikings ran with and eventually away from the competition as they placed well in all phases of the meet, grabbing two field titles as well as victories in two long distance relays and the two individual sprint events.

Everett seniors Andy Bunnell, Rodney Whittington, Chuck Phillips and Ken Thompson ran an impressive 42.34 seconds in the 400-meter relay.

Everett dominated the two individual sprint events. Thompson raced to a victory in the 110-meter high hurdles with a quick time of :14.57, a half second ahead of Lockhart. In the 100-meter dash, Phillips ran a blazing :10.65 to inch out Bunnell by .14 seconds.
