Coldwater harriers run away from Union City

Both of Coldwater High's cross country teams had an easy time en route to victories over Union City yesterday in non-league action.

The Cardinal boys ran away with a 15-49 win to improve their non-league mark to 3-1 while the Lady Cards posted an 18-45 victory at the Messenger Lake Park course.

Leading the boys' race was first-year runner Shane Finney of Coldwater, who finished in 18 minutes, 34.3 seconds. Gary Pierce was second at 18:56, Tad Thayer was third at 19:02 and Jason Grupp came in fourth at 19:05. Scott Gleason came in fifth and Pat Angle sixth to round out the Cardinal placers.

Rob Dow placed seventh for Union City at 19:47.

Freshman Jill Strawser took top honors in the girls' race with a 20:57.4 to pace the Lady Cards. Teammate Dawn Valle was next at 21:07. Union City's Terri Forest was third at 22:12.

Coldwater runners Michelle Laughry (22:16), Joan Monroe (22:42) and Mary Nowak (23:41) took the next three places to seal the win.

The Chargers' Bobbi Silva placed ninth, behind Coldwater's Tammy Huntley and Robin Brodt.

Both Coldwater teams begin Twin Valley action next week, hosting Hastings next Wednesday at 5 p.m.
