Strawser, Valle pace Lady Card harriers

Led by the running duo of Jill Strawser and Dawn Valle, the Coldwater High girls' cross country team swept the first five places Wednesday en route to topping Hastings 15-43 in Twin Valley action.

Strawser and Valle crossed the finish line only a step apart. Both clocked a time of 20 minutes, 37 seconds for a season-best time for both. Those two were followed by teammate Joan Monroe (21:43), Mary Nowak (22:44) and Tammy Huntley (23:03). Hastings' first finisher, Jean Chenier, was clocked in 23:38.

The Coldwater victory was the first conference win of the season.

The Cardinal boys were not as fortunate, losing a 27-28 heartbreaker to the Saxons.

Hastings' Scott Oom showed he will be a contender for the top spot in the Twin Valley this year as he ran away from Coldwater's Scott Gleason to win in 16:32. Gleason took second at 16:51.

The Cards' Brian Licht took third at 17:09, while Hastings took fourth to keep the score tied. Coldwater's Shane Finney was fifth, but the Saxons took sixth and seventh. Coldwater's Tad Thayer placed eighth, but Hastings grabbed ninth to win.

"We knew they were a much improved team over last year," Coldwater coach Jim Bilsborrow said. "Despite our illness and injuries, our kids ran well. We almost beat them."

Coldwater's harriers will travel to Marshall to race the Redskins and Lakeview next Wednesday in a Twin Valley double-dual meet.
