Coldwater harriers no match for Titans

Plagued by injuries and illness since the season began, Coldwater High's cross country teams were no match for Jackson Lumen Christi Monday.

The Titans romped to two easy wins at Messenger Park, with the boys taking a 17-44 win and the girls prevailing 18-44 in a non-league meet.

Lumen Christi's Tim Anuszkiewicz paced the boys' meet with a time of 16 minutes, 40.4 seconds while Suzi Crowley took first in the girls' meet at 20:41.

Only Coldwater's Brian Licht and

Shane Finney were able to break up the onslaught in the boys' race. Licht placed fourth with his fastest time ever on the home course at 17:24. Finney came in at 17:57, his best time ever at Messenger Park, for seventh.

The Lady Cards' Dawn Valle managed to place third at 21:04. Jill Strawser also ran well, narrowly missing seventh place but receiving the same time as all-stater Kari Frederick of Lumen Christi, 21:37.

Coldwater's runners will take part in the Springport Invitational on Thursday.
