Colon, Coldwater runners reign

UNION CITY — Colon and Coldwater high schools won boys' and girls' team titles, respectively, and Colon's Scott Kaukonen and Coldwater's Jill Strawser both won individual titles Saturday at the Union City Charger Invitational.

Kaukonen won the Class C-D boys' individual race in 17:15 to lead the Magi to the team title. It is the second straight title Kaukonen has won. He won the Union City Invitational title last weekend.

Colon finished first with 28 points, six less than runnerup Edwardsburg. Springfield was third.

Strawser won the Class B girls' individual title in 20:02, just 2 seconds ahead of teammate Dawn Valle, to lead the Cardinals, who won with 52 points, 7 fewer than runnerup Grand Rapids Christian. Gull Lake, led by Rhonda Wendzel's third place, was fourth.

Scott Kaukonen's brother, Steve, was second in the race in 17:21. Galesburg-Augusta's Brian Coates was 10th and Springfield's Gary Cooper was 11th.

Coldwater's boys' team was second in the Class B division with 67 points. Grand Rapids Christian won the race with 49 points. Coldwater's Ted Thayer was third in the individual race in 17:11. Brian Licht was seventh (17:26) and Shane Finney was ninth (17:34).

Albion's Dan Coleman was fifth (17:19) and Gull Lake's Eric Ulbrich was eighth (17:28).

Galesburg-Augusta was second in the girls' Class C-D division with 67 points, 2 behind champion Edwardsburg. G-A's Nicki Butler was second in 19:42. Teammate Tanga Magack was fourth in 21:29.

Quincy's Loretta Tobolski was fifth (21:33) and Cary Coonce was seventh (22:10). Springfield's Louise Philp was ninth (22:35).

Coldwater cross country teams place 1-2 at Charger Invitational

UNION CITY — It may have been a cold and miserable day for everybody else, but Saturday was an excellent day as far as the Coldwater High boys' and girls' cross country teams.

Behind the one-two punch of Jill Strawser and Dawn Valle, the Lady Cards took first place in the Class B division of the Union City Charger Invitational over Grand Rapids Christian, while the two schools flipped-flopped positions in the boys' race.

Coldwater won the girls' race with 52 points, with Grand Rapids Christian second with 59. Vicksburg (83), Gull Lake (88), Brooklyn-Columbia Central (107) and Three Rivers (193) followed.

STRAWSER WON the girls' race in 20:02 and Valle was right behind her at 20:04. Joan Monroe (12th, 21:25), Tammy Huntley (17th, 22:19), Joy Thayer (20th, 22:45), Michelle Laughry (23:17) and Robin Brodt (29th, 23:50) all followed for Coldwater.

Tad Thayer paced Coldwater's boys with a third-place time of 17:11. Following him were teammates Brian Licht (seventh, 17:26), Shane Finney (ninth, 17:34), Jeff Rider (23rd, 18:16), Pat Angle (25th, 18:22), Jim Barnes (38th, 19:03) and Paul Brown (43rd, 19:34).

Grand Rapids Christian's Mike Miedema finished first in 16:51. Christian won with 49 points and Coldwater was second with 67. Next was Gull Lake (87), Vicksburg (102), Marshall (115), Three Rivers (134), Albion (161), Brooklyn-Columbia Central (202) and Paw Paw (237).

In Class C-D boys, Quincy was seventh with 201 points and Union City finished eighth with 203. Colon won with 28 points.

SCOTT MARVIN'S 35th-place time of 20:30 led the Orioles. Following him were teammates Joe Stevens (37th, 20:47), Don Banker (39th, 20:48), Tim Dowker (42nd, 21:36), Shane Russell (48th, 23:19) and Gary Karney (52nd, 25:25).

Union City's Sascha Nicolaysen paced the Chargers with a 20:05, good for 27th place. Next was Nick Flowers (36th, 20:40), Chris Mathis (40th, 20:59), Brian Bartush (49th, 23:20) and John Kasparie (51st, 25:23).

Colon's Scott Kaukonen won in 17:15.

Quincy's girls finished third with 76 points. Edwardsburg won with 65 points. Union City did not have enough runners for a team score.

LORETTA TOBOLSKE took fifth place for Quincy in 21:33. She was followed by teammates Cary Cooce (seventh, 22:10), Dawn Russell (16th, 23:49), Lori Baker (18th, 24:06), Shirley Delaney (30th, 26:33) and Deb Barry (36th, 29:28).

Carrie Lepper paced the Chargers with a 17th-place time of 24:03. Next was Kim Halderman (28th, 26:05), Sue Brasker (29th, 26:22) and Lynn Kimbel (34th, 28:33).

Coldwater tennis

HILLSDALE — Coldwater's tennis team took sixth place here Friday and Saturday in the Twin Valley Tennis Meet.

Sturgis finished first and Lakeview was second. Next was Hastings, Hillsdale, Harper Creek, Coldwater, Marshall and Albion.

"The girls played better than they did in the season," Coldwater coach Doug Lake remarked. "If they went down, they didn't go down without a fight."

Julia DeJongh took third place at second singles to pace the Lady Cards. DeJongh lost her first match to Jennifer Wallman of Sturgis 6-2, 6-3, then defeated Cece Gawart of Harper Creek 6-4, 6-1; Michelle Kalusniak of Hillsdale 6-2, 6-4; and Anna Loftus of Hastings 6-1, 6-4.

At first singles, Katie Davey placed seventh. She lost to Mary Ellen Goodall of Hillsdale 6-4, 7-6; and to Kerri Stanislau of Lakeview 6-3, 6-4.

Mary Dogan and Michelle Barr both took fifth places at third and fourth singles, respectively. Dogan lost to Erika Melchi of Sturgis 6-1, 7-5; then defeated Jennifer Carlson of Albion 6-0, 6-0. She lost to Lynn McRitchie of Hillsdale 6-4, 0-6, 6-3; then defeated Beth Hoover of Hastings 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Barr lost to Kristine Sabolic of Lakeview 3-6, 6-3, 6-3; then defeated Marshall's Theresa Shockey 6-0, 6-3. She lost to Cate Bates of Harper Creek 7-6, 6-1; then defeated Betsy Helton of Hillsdale 6-4, 7-5.

The first doubles team of Elizabeth Lake-Bridgette Darby placed fifth. They began by beating Albion 6-0, 6-2; then lost to Hastings 1-6, 7-5, 6-4; and to Hillsdale 6-7, 6-3, 6-4. They finished by downing Marshall 0-3, 6-4, 6-3.

Lesley Poling-Krissy Baker placed sixth. They started out with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Harper Creek, then lost to Sturgis 6-1, 6-1; and to Marshall 5-7, 6-4, 6-3. They finished with a 6-4, 6-4 win over Harper Creek.

The third doubles team of Yuen-Sing Chan-Lori Boyer placed seventh, losing to Lakeview and to Hastings 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. They defeated Albion in their finale 6-0, 6-1.

Coldwater will conclude its dual meet season Wednesday with a non-league match at Springfield.
