Coldwater runners top Hastings

COLDWATER — The Coldwater Cardinal cross country teams both came away with wins on Wednesday, each team running its mark to 6-1, to secure first place standing in the Twin Valley.

The Lady Cardinals — trying to live up to their ranking of 11th in Class B — ran away with a rather easy 15-40 victory over Hastings on the winners' course.

The Cardinals took the top five spots, packing the runners within one-and-a-half minutes of one another at the finish line.

Jill Strawser led the way, coming in with a time of 20:36.9 minutes. In a close second was Joan Monroe with a 20:57. Rookie Joy Strawser was third at 21:44 on her first run on the home course. Robin Brodt was fourth at 21:52, and Jill Thayer was fifth at 22:07, with her best time of the season.

Heidi Herron led the Saxons with a 22:23, good enough for sixth.

COACH JIM BILSBORROW was upbeat about the girls' performance, "This was one of our girls' best team efforts of the season.

"We are really starting to put our top individual performances together in the same race."

The Cardinal coach was also pleased with the boys' efforts. The Cardinals downed Hastings almost as easily as the Lady Cardinals, 17-39.

Finishing first, second and third were Bob Bates, Tad Thayer and Jason Grupp. Bates time was 16:53.7, while Thayer came in at 17:38 and Grupp finishing at 17:43.

The Saxons' Mark Lester held onto fourth place (17:52), just ahead of fifth-place Cardinal Ted Turner (18:03) and sixth-place finisher Eric Rueppel (18:22) for Coldwater.

The Cardinals presently have won three Twin Valley contests.

Both the boys' and girls' Cardinal teams lead the league.
