Cards sweep in cross country

COLDWATER — The Coldwater Cardinals' cross country teams swept past Three Rivers and Centreville in a non-conference double dual match on Tuesday.

The Lady Cards won the double dual by forfeit, as neither Three Rivers or Centreville had enough girls to field a full team.

The Lady Cards' Jill Strawser was the medal winner with a time of 20:56.7. Strawser's sister, Joy, was second at 21:02, while Three Rivers' April Wilson took third with a time of 22:35. Coldwater's Danielle Lippert was fourth at 22:42, while the Lady Cards' Jill Thayer was fifth and Dawn Marriott, eighth.

In the boys competition, Coldwater defeated Three Rivers by the score of 18-40 and Centreville, 21-40.

COLDWATER'S BOB BATES was the medal winner with a three mile time of 16:24.9. Centreville's Rob Adams was second at 17:29 and the Cards' Terry Huntley, third at 17:32. Huntley's time was a personal best for him. The Cards' Ted Turner was fourth at 18:18, while Centreville's Steve Miller rounded out the top five spots at 18:47. Coldwater's Eric Rueppel was sixth at 19:06.

Coldwater returns to action on Thursday, as the Cards will host Union City in a non-conference match. Coldwater will compete in the Centreville Invitational Tournament on Saturday.

Orioles split in cross country

CONCORD — Coach Marty Chard's Quincy Orioles' cross country team split a Big Eight Conference match with the Concord Yellowjackets on Tuesday.

The Lady O's nipped the Yellowjackets by the score of 27-30, as Quinsta McClughen was the medal winner with a three-mile time of ook took fifth place with a 22:47, while Jill Clark wa
