Hill who took second

Johnson. Seminary's distance runner, gave the Cardinals the second-best showing in the county, with wins in the two distance runs while anchoring the 3200-meter relay team, which took second.

The heat got to me again. said Johnson a sophomore who finished second in the Class C cross country state championships in the fall.

"Saturday's supposed to be nice, so I hope to do well," he said of the state meet in Grand Rapids.

Helping Hemlock to its two firstplace finishes were stars from other sports.

Lisik, the undefeated state wrestling champion at 135-pounds, also can leg it pretty good, taking the 800 run, while Eric Cruse of basketball fame, notched a 6-3 high jump for first place in that event.

Birch Run's Ian McNamara was the day's pole vault winner, going 11-6, while St. Charles' Orr evened the score with Engel by winning the discus with a toss of 146-8.
