

Quartet leads Carman-Ainsworth

The fleet four ran Carman-Ainsworth to victory Friday in the Cavalier Classic track relays.

Paced by the quartet of Rafael Jackson, Cedric Mosley, Jerron Mosley and Earl Chatman, host Carman-Ainsworth totaled 91 points to win the team championship in the competition that involved eight Class A schools and three in Class B.

Carman-Ainsworth won four events, three by its fast foursome, to finished ahead of second-place Bay City Western which totaled 68 points. Western won three events.

LakeVille, which won three field events, won the Class B portion of the competition with 54 points. Fenton was third with 33.

Jackson, the two Mosleys and Chatman won the 4 x 100, the 800 and the Cavalier Relay.

Carman-Ainsworth also won the Somer Relay with the team of Donte Wright, Curran Jenkins, Mike Vennie and Brent Busbey.

Flushing's two victories came from the foursome of Todd Meredith, Steve Tunncliffe, Matt McKone and Kent Young in the 9,600 and distance relays.

Rick McDowell and Mark Griwatsch had a hand in both of Swartz Creek's triumphs. They combined with Jim Cocking and Garret Ireland to win the 4 x 800 relay and joined Ben Hunault and Jason Erbe in the four-mile relay.

LakeVille won the discus, high jump and shot put relays.
