Regionals bring out area's best

HARBOR BEACH — Several area runners had fine showings in the Class C cross country regional here at Wagener Park on Saturday to advance to state finals competition next Saturday at Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn.

The Unionville-Sebewaing Area boys squad finished in third place in the 14-team event and advanced. Sandusky won the meet with Valley Lutheran placing second.

The Patriots were led by Joshua Taylor (17:18.85) with a 10th-place finish. Davis Vader (17:41.35), Joel Haist (18:08.64), Jonathan Joles (18:10.27), Brandon Lopez (18:17.35), Craig Geno (19:29.34) and Robert Haag (20:28.81) were the other USA finishers that will run next weekend.

Craig Emmert, a freshman from Cass City, also advanced to the finals with a 13th-place finish (17:31.43).

In the girls event, no team finished in the top three to advance to finals, but several runners will move on individually.

USA, which finished fourth as a team behind Valley Lutheran, Sandusky and Freeland, has Nicole Sella (20:34.35), Sara Taylor (20:42.70) and Ashlee Weinlander (21:23.20) all advancing to the finals.

Bad Axe's Tiffany Lautner finished 16th to advance with a time of 20:48.41. Ubley has Sara Creguer making it to the finals with a time of 20:56.08 and Deckerville's Shelly Park advanced with a time of 21:15.59.

A complete recap of the event and the results of other area runners will be published in Monday's Tribune.

CLASS D MEET

FLJNT — North Huron's Becky Thomas was the lone area finisher to advance to the Class D state finals with a 23rd place showing at the regionals hosted by Flint Kearsley High School on Saturday.

Thomas had a time of 23:30 to allow her to advance to the finals next week at MIS in Brooklyn.

Tina Petuprin from Akron-Fairgrove won the individual event with a time of 20:40. The Vikings advanced to the finals as a team.

Other Warrior finishers included Candice Fisher with a 53rd-place finish and Jodi Yaroch in 59th place.

On the boys' side, North Central Thumb League's Carsonville-Port Sanilac advanced to state competition with a fifth-place finish.

The two lone area runners, North Huron's Max Berry (21:35) and Joe Cucchiara (22:32), had their best times of the season but did not advance.
