Discus Thrower Smashes Record

CHARLOTTE - Julie Pedersen came to Charlotte hoping for a personal-best performance in the discus. She'll leave as an American record-holder. Pedersen, 14 of Grand Forks, North Dakota, made a throw of 138-feet, 6-inches on her second attempt during the Youth Girls discus competition at UNC Charlotte Irwin Belk Track and Field Center. Her throw was nearly seven feet better than the previous American record (131-11, set in 1991) in the Youth Age Division.

"I felt good today, really loose," said Pedersen, who will enter Red River High this fall as a freshman but has competed on the school's varsity track team since sixth grade. "When I got ready, I just tried to image a perfect throw. I tell myself good things and that everything's going to be OK no matter what."

Pedersen is one of a group of 42 that made the trip from Grand Forks as part of the Quicksilver Track Team. The group raised the $40,000 necessary to make the trip, despite the many members whose families were still recovering from last year's severe flooding which crippled the city.

Heavyweight Champ drops in on Charlotte Games

CHARLOTTE - Heavyweight Boxing Champion Evander Holyfield set off a frenzy at the AAU Junior Olympic Games Track and Field competition in Charlotte, showing up unannounced at the track and field competition where his four kids were competing.

Holyfield arrived outside the UNC Charlotte Track and Field Center in a blue stretch limo. As he made his way toward the center's press box, hundreds of participants and fans rushed him. Police officers formed a circle around Holyfield, finally escorting him safely upstairs.

Holyfield sponsors the Atlanta-based Quicksilver Track Team, and his four children-Evander Jr., Ewin, Evette, and Ebonne - are members of the team. "I just wanted to come to support my kids,' Holyfield said. I know when I was little and was in AAU, I traveled alot for track and boxing, and my parents weren't able to travel with me because they couldn't afford to. I can afford it, so I try to come to their meets whenever I can."

AAU Officials escorted Holyfield to the Track's infield, where he presented medals to the Champions in several events. Valerie Williams, 17, won the Young Women's Long Jump. "My stomach did flip-flops," Valerie said, her eyes sparkling as she clutched the medal, "I'm definitely keeping this one in my site."
